

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength...love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.

Mark 12: 30.

"Who is my neighbour?"

Luke 10:29

Think About It:

- How honest were you with the Line game?
- What three groups would be on your own personal "Line List" that weren't mentioned?

Talk About It:

- What struck you most about the story of the Good Samaritan tonight?
- What past or current events are the result of "othering" : racial revulsion, economic oppression, gender discrimination?
- Why do you think we so often divide people into "us" and "them"?
- Have you ever been "othered"? How did you react?

Reflect On It:

- What would “radical inclusivity” look like in your school, workplace, church, gym, sports team ... ?
- Name one thing that would definitely need to change?

A Challenge: Keep your eyes open this coming week.

- FOUR times this week be a “Good Samaritan” to someone who needs help or assistance. This could be as simple as helping to carry something or saying a kind word.
- TWO of those times should involve someone who is in your tribe and with whom you are comfortable.
- TWO times help someone you do not know and who may be outside your tribe.
- Report Back and share your experiences with at least one other person.

There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female, for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:28
